

The Wolf

Character Description through Dialogue

The wolf showed he was

sly

when he pretended to be Granny and croaked,

“Oh, how lovely! Do come in, my dear.”

fierce

when he roared,

“All the better to eat you with!”

sneaky

when he asked Red Riding Hood,

“Where are you going?”

in his politest voice.

The story shows the wolf was scary

when Little Red Riding Hood said,

“What big teeth you have!”

wicked

when he tricks Granny by saying,

“I have brought you a basket of food from mother to make you feel better.”

The wolf showed he was very clever

while he was pretending to be Granny. He was asked why his voice sounded so strange and quickly replied,

“Oh, I just have a touch of a cold.”
