What does that mean? Non-fiction is writing that gives information or describes real events, rather than telling a story. Put on your exploring caps and go and see if you can find some worms! Show your grown up any worms you find! (please handle them carefully) If you can't find any is there anything you can do to encourage them to come to the surface? Can you describe them? How do they feel? Look? Where did you find them? You or your grown up might like to draw the outline of a worm (on paper, on the ground with chalk ...) can you have a go at writing some words that describe your worm? i.e. brown, pink, long, thin, wiggly ...
Collective Worship	Following on from yesterday -can you draw round your hand again, cut it out and think of another way that you can use your hands to help look after the world around you? You might like to think how you could help the birds in your garden? What could you do to help little hedgehogs?
