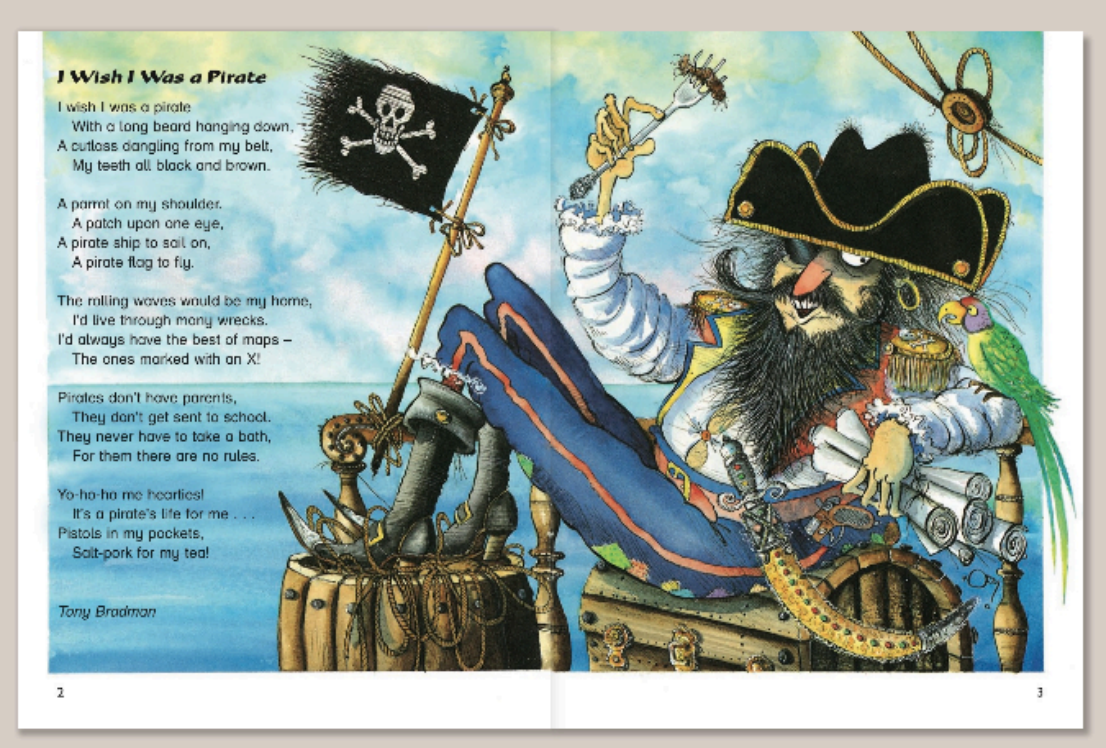
I wish I was a pirate
With a long beard
hanging down!



I Wish I Was a Pirate

I wish I was a pirate
With a long beard hanging down,
A cutlass dangling from my belt,
My teeth all black and brown.

A parrot on my shoulder,
A patch upon one eye,
A pirate ship to sail on,
A pirate flag to fly.

The rolling waves would be my home,
I'd live through many wrecks.
I'd always have the best of maps –
The ones marked with an X!

Pirates don't have parents,
They don't get sent to school.
They never have to take a bath,
For them there are no rules.

Yo-ho-ho me hearties!
It's a pirate's life for me . . .
Pistols in my pockets,
Salt-pork for my tea!
