The image shows a character analysis template. It consists of a large rectangle divided into four quadrants by a vertical line and a horizontal line. In the center, where the lines intersect, is an oval. The text 'The character's name is:' is written inside this oval. Each of the four quadrants contains a prompt: 'This character says.....' in the top-left, 'This character feels.....' in the top-right, 'This character looks like.....' in the bottom-left, and 'This character does.....' in the bottom-right.
